WHAT OUR CLIENTS SAY

“As it’s turned out, we outsourced for quite a while, so long on a certain product, that they are probably now our product developers and maintainers for one of our own IP.

We’ve been using them now for 7 years. They’ve been very reliable. I think reliability is the overall game which is why we stuck with them.”

Growing Sales Strong

“Good people, interested in doing a good job, care about the product, try to understand the business logic behind it. As a result of that we gave them more and more work. Today, 7 years fast-forward, we have 8 to 9 people in India that are totally dedicated to us.

We kind of insisted for them to be an extension of our company, that’s why I call it a partnership and it is at a reasonable cost. They help us to expedite the delivery of the product.”
